The campground, the largest on the peninsula, is heavily developed; every bit of available space between Pescadero Creek and Pescadero Road is used for campgrounds or picnic areas. The campground itself feels fine, but if you want to go for a short walk there aren't a lot of really good options unless you go to one of the neighboring parks.

A street or road name or toponym is an identifying name given to a street. The street name usually forms part of the address (though addresses in some parts of the world, notably most of Japan, make no reference to street names). Buildings are often given numbers along the street to further help identify them.. Names are often given in a two-part form: an individual name known as the specific ...
