Review: Rebecca Gilman's 'The Crowd You're in With' - SFGate

The Crowd You're In With (aka Cheerio Trees) By Rebecca Gilman I'm a waiter, right? The people with the kids come in, and it's one of two things. Either they bring a whole refrigerator's worth of food with them, in these little Tupperware containers, or they don't bring anything. Both suck equally.

Need comedic monologue from 16 year old male (self.acting) submitted 2 years ago by PeterGayrino. ... Check out Dwight's monologue from Rebecca Gilman's "The Crowd You're In With." It's a pretty epic waiter rant that is easy to relate to, and has always gotten laughs for me.

Need comedic monologue from 16 year old male : acting

The Crowd You're In With. Rebecca Gilman's usual bright dialogue and neatly etched characters make Amy Glazer's sharp Magic Theater premiere staging an easy, frequently quite funny sit. Yet this 75-minute one-act, a single scene played out in real time, feels awfully slight as a stand-alone evening.
